Matthew 6:24

24 "No one can serve two masters. For a slave will either love the other, or be devoted to the other, and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth."

25 "Therefore I tell you, why do you worry about the body, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about the body, what you will wear? Is not the body more than the food and drink, and the body more than the clothing?"
